

American Heritage Magazine May 2002 (Volume 53, Number 2) Hiking the Ancient Trails of Hawaii Single Issue Magazine - 16th Annual Travel Issue

ON THE COVER: The Pacific curls against the lava-bound coastline of the Big Island of Hawaii below Mount Kilauea. Some Articles in this Issue are: (1) The Big Island on Foot---The Hawaii of centuries long past emerges from the landscapes crossed by its ancient trails. (2) The City at the Nations Front Door---Hobokens hardworking history exudes an undeniable gritty charm---and its view of Manhattan is incomparable. (3) The Great Dismal Swamp---George Washington tried to drain it and turn it into a plantation. Harriet Beecher Stowe was inspired by the escaped slaves hiding deep inside it. Loggers worked it for centuries. Yet today it is one of the least-known unspoiled spots in the East. (4) Treasure Ship---How a group of prospectors, digging for a strike in the former bed of the Missouri River, turned up the whole mid-nineteenth century (5) Sailing On---Architectural relics from great old ocean liners have found a home in the dining rooms of four new cruise ships.
